The Marcato Club male chorus will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Cora Atchison on Sixth street.

Accepts Secretaryship.

Miss Jennie Thompson has accepted the position as secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association and will take up the work September 1. Miss Thompson is industrial secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association in Wheeling and comes very highly recommended. Clarksburg is fortunate in securing a woman of such wide experience and capability.

To Hold Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the chairmen of the different committees of the Young Woman's Christian Association and their secretaries at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening in the Young Woman's Christian Association building. All are urged to be present.

On Trip to Canada.

George L. Dufour, oil well owner and capitalist, left Saturday evening on a trip to Canada and he will not return until September. He will visit Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, Boston, Albany, Quebec and other places and then spend a month

To Open Summer Camp.

The Young Woman's Christian Association will open a summer camp for girls July 1 at Barnett. This will be a vacation home for girls at a small sum and will be open until September 20. The committee has secured tents and equipment and fifteen girls will be accommodated at one time. It will be a big family and not an institution. Miss Eleanor Negley, of Dayton, O., a trained leader of recreation, will be in charge for the entire season. Trees,

ROBINSON AHEAD

Of Lilly in the Vote for the Nomination for Governor by 517 Votes.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WHEELING, June 24.—Only slight changes were made today in the close contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. An accurate report of the Monroe county recount cut off thirty-three of the Robinson gain of seventy-two reported Friday. Correction of a telegraphic error in the recent Jefferson county recount added twenty to the Robinson majority in that county. The state totals are:

Lilly, 59,377.
Robinson, 59,894.
Robinson's majority, 517.
A dispatch from Union gave these as the official totals of the recount in Monroe county: Lilly 669, Robinson 193, Lilly majority 466.
The corrected totals for Jefferson county are Lilly 162, Robinson 580, Robinson majority 418.

WOMAN SEES IT

Rheta Childs Dorr

Colorado Springs up to a recent date had a garbage problem which occupied a great deal of the city council's time and never got nearer a satisfactory conclusion. The city paid $100 a month to have its garbage removed, but no firm to which the contract had been awarded had ever removed more than two-fifths of it in a week. Housekeepers complained, the newspapers abused the council, the doctors made annual prophecies of epidemics. Still the garbage problem remained.

Finally the women's club took the matter up. They did more than talk, these women. They sent to Washington for every available particle of literature on garbage removal, and they appointed a committee to find out in various ways how other towns and cities had dealt with the problem. They also appointed a committee to watch the garbage contractors and find out what they did with the garbage.

When the women had finished their investigation they went to the city council and said to the men: "Do you know what you have been doing all these years? You have been paying men to cart away the city's garbage when you should have been charging them for the privilege. Garbage has a money value. These contractors know it. They sell the city's refuse, and they collect only as much as they can sell. That is why we have had such abominable service. Try the other way. This firm's contract expires in six months. At the end of that time advertise for bids for the privilege of collecting the garbage of Colorado Springs."

Women vote in Colorado, and for this reason their advice is usually listened to by the politicians. In this case it was listened to respectfully and followed very quickly. The city council served notice that on the expiration of the garbage contract no application for a renewal on former terms would be entertained.

When the six months were up the city advertised for bids for the privilege of removing the city's waste, and somewhat to the astonishment of the men the council was deluged with applications. The contract was finally awarded to the old firm, which offered to pay $100 a month—the exact sum it had been charging for the work.

Colorado Springs now has a good service, because the firm has to collect all the garbage or forfeit its contract. And it has an additional revenue of $1,200 in place of an annual expense of $1,200. Which is merely another evidence that woman's place is in the city hall and in every other department of municipal life where the problems of housekeeping and the home have to be met.
